to Whom it may Concerns,

My Name is Linda Shepard, I am 59 yrs. old, and would like to speak a few words concerning Michael Shawn Campbell's Charitar, I have known Michael Shawn since he was a child, he came from a good Christian family, finished high school, always involved sports and always worked from the time he got out of school. He got married, has a wife and 2 well-mannered children and has always been a hard working and good provider for his family. Never been in any trouble in his lifetime not even as a child. Always well-mannered and respectable to others. Never rebellious in anyway. He was just a wonderful and respectable person to be around. I don't know what went wrong

But like I said, Michael was raised in a Christian home and attended First Baptist Church and other good organizations in the Christian fields, wherever they needed him, he would be there.
 Always, Respectable and kind to others - Never hurt anyone.
 He is a wonderful and good person. He is still a child of God, and I will pray for Michael and know that God is in control of his life.
 Because I believe that there is nothing hidden from God that is not revealed in all of this and I know Michael believes this too.
 Michael is a good person and a wonderful provider as a father, and I wish, always has been!!
 I hope you will check into his background and know this before you make your decision + judgement for his future. Everyone deserves a second chance in life.
 Thank you so much!!! Linda
